About the Illustrator

Emily Hogan is a 14-year-old 9th grade student at Cicero-North Syracuse High School in Syracuse, New York. She plays saxophone in several of the school's music ensembles including the marching band. Emily has been drawing for over 8 years and has won a gold medal in the New York State Scholastic Arts Competition. Emily plans to go to college for graphic arts and design as well as business.

Drummy Drum Joins Marchy Band is a journey of a small drum trying to find his place. It teaches kids about fitting in and to just be yourself. The book is filled with fun sounds and action while Drummy tries out different instruments in the marchy band. Share Drummy's story with a youngster you know!
