

Instructions -

First: Use a large piece of paper, or posterboard, to draw a fun and colorful path for players to follow as they march along their parade route. This can be a road for a parade, grass, a field, or wherever else you can imagine musicians marching!

Second: Cut out some, or all, of the spaces below and decide where they'll go on your game board. Space them out as little or as much as you want.

Third: Create some of your own spaces by writing in the instructions on the blank spaces provided below. Be as easy or as hard as you want, but have fun with music related text!

Fourth: Glue all the cutout spaces below onto your game board.

Fifth: Draw some pictures on music or marching related objects or images around the game board's pathway. Make it fun and exciting!

Sixth: Turn your game board over, write your name and make up some rules to write on the back for all players to follow.

Last: Find a dice and play with friends and family!
